DIGITAL EVENTS

In our versatile facilities, we find the right setting for every livestream - whether as an extension of an on-site event or as a production without an audience. At the Festplatz, we have created possibilities in the Konzerthaus and the Gartenhalle, as well as in our modern conference centre at Messe Rheinstetten. Together with our long-standing partners, we ensure that everything runs smoothly in technical terms and that you "only" have to bring in the content of your event.

We are satisfied when you are.

The success of an event depends on many factors and small details often make all the difference. This is exactly what we pay attention to. To ensure that planning and realisation are optimally coordinated, we provide you with personal contacts who will do their utmost to find an individual solution for every challenge. Not possible, not possible with us!

For us, full service means that you receive all services relating to your event organisation from a single source. How do we do that? As an experienced event organiser, we have competent professionals on site who work well together. From catering, marketing, planning and press to stand construction.
